

Post Title: Lecturer (Aeronautical Engineering)

Responsible to: Curriculum Quality Manager

Education and Professional Qualifications

Essential:

- Served a recognised Aircraft Apprenticeship
- CPD relevant to the scope of the role and subject area, completed within the last 2 years

Desirable:

- TQFE or other relevant teaching qualification
- Experience of working in a Maintenance Repair Organisation (MRO) and an awareness of the B1 or B2 Aircraft Maintenance Licence framework
- Experience of the composite repair process

Knowledge

Essential:

- Attainment of knowledge and skill in accordance with requirements of the course/subject/level delivered

Desirable:

- Knowledge of innovative approaches to course delivery and engaging with students from a diverse range of backgrounds

Skills and Competencies

Essential:

- Excellent communication, organisation, presentation and interpersonal skills
- A comprehensive working knowledge of the Microsoft Office suite

- Demonstrable ability to produce work which will enhance the learning and teaching experience within the Curriculum Area

Desirable:

- The ability to manage challenging behaviours and to engage with all learners
- Demonstrate the ability to incorporate the principles of equality and diversity within the delivery of learning and teaching experiences
- Aeronautical pedagogical skills to an appropriate level specified by the Scottish Credit and Qualifications framework
- Ability to demonstrate innovation and creativity in the approach to learning and teaching
- The ability to integrate digital technologies and the VLE within the learning and teaching experience.

Professional Experience

Essential:

- Appropriate level of relevant experience in accordance with the requirements of the course, subjects and level delivered.

Desirable:

- Appropriate level of relevant teaching experience within a College environment in the curriculum area of Aeronautical Engineering in accordance with the requirements of the course, subjects and level delivered.